Usage information

Looking after your Ocean Toys product correctly will prolong the life of the product. Please follow the safety information below.

- Clean the product before each use. Wash with antibacterial soap and rinse with warm water. Pat dry with a towel.
- Do not use with massage oils or hand creams.
- Do not use silicone-based lubricant as this can damage the silicone surface.
- Do not clean with cleaning products containing alcohol, petroleum or acetone.
- Avoid direct solar radiation and long-term exposure to high temperatures.
- Store the product in a clean, dry, dust-free environment, away from contact with other plastic products.

Built-in battery maintenance

- This product contains a built-in rechargeable battery.
- The new battery may take several full charges and discharges before it reaches its optimum level.
- Once the product is fully charged, disconnect the charger. Leaving the product on charge when it is fully charged can reduce the product's battery life.
- The product may gradually lose charge if not used for a while.
- The battery life may be reduced if stored in hot or cold temperatures.

Warning

Do not attempt to remove the battery from the product as it could cause fire or chemical burns. If the product is damaged in any way, discontinue use immediately and dispose of the product correctly in accordance with the local laws and regulations. Where possible, please recycle.

International Certification

Ocean Toys products have passed EU ROHS certification and meet EU CE Directive and WEEE Directive.

Ocean Toys products are "Green" meeting the official safety and environmental protection standard issued by agencies in Europe and North America.

Additional Information: The EU CE Directive and the WEEE Directive are referred to as the "Twin Directives for Environmental Protection" or "Double Green Directives" and are used to restrict hazardous substances in electronic products including lead, cadmium, and mercury. ROHS stands for "Restriction of the Use of Certain Hazardous Substances"; and WEEE stands for "Waste Electrical and Electronic Equipment". Products that meet the standards set out in these two directives can be advertised as "Green Products".

EU CE Directive: Is the collective name of a series of product standards issued by the European Union; enterprises complying with the standard may apply for CE certification mark on their products and labelling. Ocean Toys products surpass the standards set out by these directives and are authorized to use the mark identifying that the products comply with all EU requirements.
